Date:

Conditions and Privileges

1. Definitions:

“age” means the age nearer birthday as on the date of commencement on the basis of date of birth as declared in the Proposal Form.

“proposer” means the person who proposes for insurance on own life or on the life of the minor to be assured.

“life assured” means the person on whose life insurance cover is granted.

“maturity date” means the date on which the risk cover ceases and benefits available become payable in terms of the policy except in case where death of the life assured occurs prior to the said date.

“policy anniversary” means the date and month of the commencement of the policy falling subsequently every year.

“policyholder” means the owner of the policy in whom right and title under the policy vests.

“sum assured” means the amount payable under the Base Policy in terms of the policy conditions.

“surrender” means terminating the contract once for all. On surrender, surrender value is payable as specified hereinafter.

2. Age Proof: The premium mentioned in the policy has been calculated on the basis of the age disclosed in the proposal form. Should there be difference in the age proof submitted and the age mentioned in the proposal form, the Company will charge difference of premiums with interest on the prevailing rate compounding half yearly on the difference of the original premium charged and correct premium from the date of commencement till the admission of age. A charge for the outstanding difference of premiums and interest will be created on the policy without prejudice to the interest of the Company and the same will be recovered from any claim amount payable under the policy. In case the age renders the life assured uninsurable under the existing product, no amount shall be refunded to the life assured but a modified product shall be substituted as per the terms and conditions of the Company at the commencement of the Assurance.

3. Suicide:

In case of death due to suicide within twelve months from the date of inception of the policy, the nominee / beneficiary shall be entitled to 80% of the single premium paid.

4. Assignment and Nomination: Assignment of the policy, whether with or without consideration may be made only by an endorsement upon the policy itself or by a separate instrument, signed in either case by the transferor or by the assignor or his duly authorised agent and attested by at least one witness, specifically setting forth the fact of transfer or assignment.

The holder of a policy of life insurance on his own life may, when effecting the policy or at any time before the policy matures for payment, nominate the person or persons to whom the money secured by the policy shall be paid in the event of his death.

Notice should be served on the Company for registration of Assignment/Change in Nomination.

The Company does not accept any responsibility or express any opinion as to its validity or legal effect.

5. Vesting of Policy: In case policy issued on the life of a minor, it will automatically vest in the life assured on the date the child attains the age of 18 years.

On vesting, the life assured shall become the absolute owner of the policy and the proposer shall cease to have any interest therein.

6. Maturity Benefit: In case the life assured survives the date of maturity Sum Assured shall be payable under the policy.

7. Death Benefit: Sum Assured will be payable immediately on the death of the life assured.

8. Surrender Value:

The policy can be surrendered any time from the date of commencement of risk.

Surrender benefit payable will be higher of the Guaranteed Surrender Value or the Special Surrender Value, where:

- Guaranteed Surrender Value is equal to 70% of the single premium paid excluding extra premium, if any, if the policy is surrendered during first three years. Thereafter, the Guaranteed Surrender Value throughout will be 90% of the single premium paid excluding extra premium, if any.
- Special Surrender Value will be as declared from time to time depending upon the experience of the company.

9. Forfeiture in certain events:

All monies paid under the policy shall belong to the Company in case any condition contained or endorsed herein is contravened or in case it is found that the proposal, personal statement or any connected document contains any untrue or incorrect statement or any material information has been withheld.

However, after the expiry of two years from the date on which it was effected, the Company may call the policy in question and cancel it only if it is established that such concealment or misrepresentation was on a material matter or suppressed fact which was material to disclose and that it was fraudulently made by the policyholder and the policyholder knew at the time of making it that the statement was false or it suppressed facts which it was material to disclose. Such cancellation of the policy will be subject to payment of surrender value already acquired by the policy.

Provided, nothing shall prevent the Company to call for age proof at any time.

10. Free Look period: Policyholder is entitled to review the terms and conditions of the policy within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of the policy bond and in case of any disagreement with the terms and conditions, the policyholder shall have option to return the policy bond stating the reasons for disagreement. In such a case the policyholder shall be entitled to refund of the paid premium after deduction of proportionate risk premium, expenses incurred towards medical examination and stamp duty charges.

11. Taxation: Tax benefits if any, under the policy will be as per prevailing provisions of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Company reserves the right to withhold from the policy proceeds such taxes, charges or levies as may be applicable from time to time. The Company also reserves the right to recover from the policyholder such taxes, charges or levies including Service Tax as may be imposed on insurance transactions including policy premium.

12. Address for communication: All communications in respect of this policy may be sent to the Registered Office or to the Local Corporate Office of the Company.

13. Loan: Loan will be available during the term of the policy to the extent of maximum 90% of the surrender value on following terms and conditions and on such further terms and conditions as the Company may decide from time to time:

1. Policy shall be assigned absolutely in favour of the Company as security for the repayment of loan and interest thereon;
2. Interest will be charged compounding half yearly at the rate decided by the Company from time to time.
3. First payment of interest shall be made on the next policy anniversary or on the date six months before the next policy anniversary whichever immediately follows the date on which loan is advanced and every half-yearly thereafter.
4. Interest will be charged minimum for a period of six months. The Company will have the right to call upon the policyholder to pay the full outstanding loan and interest within one month from the date of notice and on failure to do so, the Company will have the right to surrender the policy and adjust the outstanding loan and interest from the surrender value of the policy without giving further notice to the policyholder.
5. The Company shall have the right to deduct the outstanding loan and interest thereon or part thereof which is outstanding from the proceeds of the maturity value or on settlement of death claim.

14. Section 45 of Insurance Act, 1938: No policy of life insurance shall, after the expiry of two years from the date on which it was effected, be called in question by the insurer on the ground that a statement made in the proposal for insurance or in any report of a medical officer, or referee, or friend of the insured, or in any other document leading to the issue of the policy, was inaccurate or false, unless the insurer shows that such statement was on a material matter or suppressed facts which it was material to disclose and that it was fraudulently made by the policyholder and that the policyholder knew at the time of making it that the statement was false or it suppressed facts which it was material to disclose.

15. Claim settlements: Normally the following documents will be required for settlement of claim:

(a) On maturity-

- (1) (1) Policy bond
- (2) (2) Discharge voucher
- (3) (3) Deed of Assignment if any

(b) On death- One or more of the following documents may be required on the basis of cause of death
